Dear "Sweet heart"

2/29
Monday "Mite"

Landed this morning about 3 am train was about 30 minutes late. got up 7:30 went to breakfast and then up to see the folks you sent me the letter from

It is a concern seeing seconds, something on the order of the Bee (you remember her bought several years ago)

Should I fail to locate anything I might try and see about if it is really a business matter and OK for the wage earner who wants to save some money

Went to Capital 7 P.M. wrestled the night. This we will get to a vote tomorrow on the tax bill. I am of the opinion the bill is most of what we need and really hope so

The whole oilfield is up in the air, how hopes yet that we may get a bill by next week sufficient to meet the emergency, the A. G. H. S. people over the State met en masse at Edwards house tonight to protest being left out of the tentative budget you saw published last week. Prof. John was among the delegates, he called on me to address the assembly after many others had had their say, I gave them the best I had for 10 minutes and received many nice compliments as being made the best "speech" of the evening, you know most of them need any sort of "facts" - I do, thus they should have the private side of whatever we may have for short off-speakings

It is now straight up 12 and I am going to close pretty soon as I am expected to meet the committee at 9 am tomorrow.
I hope all my jewels are dreaming "sweet dreams" in dream land. Dreams as beautiful as the day train train, and that tomorrow we will find in all inspired work New hopes higher and better and renewed courage even though we may have found that we have chosen "phantoms and builded" "castles in the air" I know you think I am not trying to write but I have a hunch of the sorrow and punch of pens or both I don't know which is our word is all that I can write at a time without more use.

The pen won't hold it I really think it is the ink will write you again will in time to get a new right train,

I wrote Hugh Lee Sherman a letter to day and addressed it to him care "Bills Ave #23" I know he will "Dress"

By Bye love and thanks for well from your unworthy "Doc"
