Dear Sam ~~Dear~~ ^{Thursday} night.

Will write you a few lines but have but little news around here yesterday 17 aduin plenty of time but had trouble getting away from home.

I went over to Mr. Lamers and when I got there I found radiator frozen solid, almost, and waddy to explode, I took the cap off and the steam wet my gloves. soaking - I got a sack and put over the radiator and started.

before I got to Calhoun City it was opposite dry and some hot got to filling station before they Name down I was a hour.

Frozen so went to Petal Weavers for some coffee and then out by daylight. I was afraid the radiator was ruined or the motor bursted. but finally got it thamed out and filled up and every thing was O.K. Had no further trouble - Mrs L did not express much concern but had to see after some family interests, the little Broyles boy accompanied me Mr L came today.

It is some cool here 19 at daylight I am awfully sorry for you tonight if you get "the"
I can't much blame you if you just "sleep" with him.

We are having committee meetings on temperance finance ect - until I don't get to even share it is not such hard work but so "continual"

We are wrangling over liquor and revenue, and so far getting nowhere but it takes a certain amount of this waste of time surely by.

It looks like though there is more variance of opinions than two years ago.

The convention here comes up in house tomorrow and they will have a hot time

The Gov. addressed the joint session to day and was pretty concise. I really don't think he helped his cause.

I got my warrant to day which will be good 4th inst. I will mail to home - to night or tomorrow.

I am very much dis'appointed about our Canal have project as the Washburne left no project a stop order on all projects not in course of construction. This may be the only temporary. I hope so at least.

Back to the canal, I fear all the water pipes burst but will try and get them repaired when I get back. Some of the neglected one burst here last night.

I had to come to Edwards tonight is the reason I am writing on this stationery and only three sheets of this table I am economizing by using both sides.

I have not brought any of mine to my room since I brought what you have have but am going to try once more to think to do so tomorrow.

Don't get out in the cold any more than you can help keep a good fire and stay by it.

I saw windy "Chuck" Trotter last night and he said the girls were getting on fine he was very liberal with his "bucc".

Hope you said get much about tonight and am awfully sorry I am not there to buy "Poor Little me up even though she'd as soon me away in "bad weather".

Bye Bye for the present -
Love to all of you
Daddy.
