Christine,

I just now got your note relative to the job and since you've asked my advice I'm sorry to see you what to do. I think I'd go ahead and try for the place and just keep on trying for something better. If you should be lucky you could very easily resign and I guess it would beat nothing if you couldn't get something else - It's at least close to a good town. You could keep trying to get something better just the same and Benice says not to let Dr. Bedwell know about it if you can help it so that they won't quit trying to place you.

I wrote to Jay and she sent me Jimmie May's address here it is - Mrs. James Bearden Jr.

Sunrise Inn, Stewart, Florida. you write to her 'too at once and she will do all she can to help you. They said Jimmie may just get her place in Fla. thro a teachers agency - why dont you join one?

If you feel like you'd rather not try for the place Marcie has, just do as you please it will be O.K with us

Lovingly
Mother
