Dear Bernice, 13 MAR 1944

I got a couple of letters from you today and enjoyed it very much. There isn't much to write about here. I am well and having it pretty easy.

Some of us cut each others hair yesterday mine was the first one cut and it looked about like one Vera gave Sam. we all got by inspection this morning.

I got a picture from Martha today, probably the same one you got. All the boys thought she was mighty pretty.

I got a letter from Slick Parker today. He is in the South Pacific.

I get letters from Vick all the time we have been trying to get together but can't seem to get a pass at the same time.

will write again soon.

Love from
Sonny Boy
