Dear Mother,

21 APR 1944

I really have it easy this afternoon. all I have to do is sit in a shack by a phone and answer it if it happens to ring, which it never does.

I got the song books and we have been having a pretty good time with them. all the boys in my hut like my type of singing except a newyork Jew and we nearly rozz him to death.

The weather here has really been beautiful lately. The days here are the longest I ever saw.

I started to write an airmail letter but I decided that I couldn't think of enough to write.

I don't know what Vick Jr. is and have no way of finding out.

Love from Sonny
