Dear Bernice,

I have been getting your letters all along but haven't got around to writing you.

I am O.K. and am having a pretty easy time considering that I'm in combat.

We worry about the weather more than we do the enemy. The rainy season has set in here.

I got a letter from Martha and she said that she and the niggers were still doing O.K.

You probably have an idea where I am. You can write or ask if I am near a certain town and I can tell you if you're right or not.

I got a letter from Mrs. Hardin the other day. I wrote her a while back and she said that she was very thrilled to hear from me.

Love from Sonny
